Established 1945

History of Mittersill Alpine Resort

Founded and built in 1945 by the Baron Hubert von Pantz, Mittersill combines authentic Austrian style and Old World charm. Mittersill has a Tyrolean heritage and traces its roots from the aristocracy of Austria.

In 1956 Bette Davis made her first visit to Mittersill Alpine Resort and was a regular visitor until her death in 1989.

In 1964, due to a fire in the main Inn, Mittersill was expanded into the grander scale Resort of today.

In 1967 French Olympic Skier Jean Claude Killy visited Mittersill Alpine Resort.

● In 1951 Princess Elizabeth (Ren.) visited Mittersill Alpine Resort

In 1955 the separate Gasthof wing was added.

In 1969, the Baron sold the Resort to relatives and retired to Austria.

● In 1978 Lucille Ball and husband Gary Morton visited Mittersill Resort.

In 1979, the new owners were some of the pioneers of vacation ownership when they converted the interior of the Resort from hotel rooms to the condo-style featuring full kitchens.

● In 1986, the developer, donated 69 acres of land called the Mittersill Slopes to the State of NH

● In 1993, the unit owners gained direct control of the management of the resort and Mittersill Resort Association, the trustee of Mittersill Alpine Resort, an independent, non-profit, NH corporation, was established.

TODAY Mittersill Alpine Resort is a four-seasons lodging, vacation rental, and ownership resort providing affordable, self-directed vacations and quality accommodations.
