

History of Mittersill Alpine Resort

TODAY Mittersill Alpine Resort is a four-seasons lodging, vacation rental, and ownership resort providing affordable, self-directed vacations in quality accommodations.

In 1979, the new owners began to convert the interior of the resort from hotel rooms to more modern condominium style featuring full kitchens.

In 1969, the Baron sold the Resort to relatives and retired to Austria.

In 1964, because of a fire in the main Inn, Mittersill was expanded into the grander scale Resort of today.

In 1951 Princess Elizabeth (Ren.) visited Mittersill Alpine Resort

In 1993, the unit owners gained direct control of the management of the resort and Mittersill Resort Association, the trustee of Mittersill Alpine Resort, an independent, non-profit, New Hampshire corporation, was established.

In 1978 Lucille Ball and husband Gary Morton visited Mittersill Alpine Resort.

In 1967 French Olympic Skier Jean Claude Killy visited Mittersill Alpine Resort.

In 1956 Bette Davis made her first visit to Mittersill Alpine Resort and was a regular visitor until her death in 1989.

Founded and built in 1945 by the Baron Hubert von Pantz, Mittersill Alpine Resort combines authentic Austrian style and Old World charm with modern conveniences. Mittersill Alpine Resort and Village have a Tyrolean heritage and traces its roots directly from the aristocracy of Austria.

Today, Mittersill Alpine Resort™ is solely devoted to vacation ownership. With dual affiliations with RCI® and Interval International®, ownership at Mittersill Alpine Resort enables vacation exchanges throughout the world.
